

TESOL Endorsement Program

Heidelberg University in partnership with UThink

This online program is designed for educators in the field serving students identified as English Learners in their classroom. With completion of coursework and praxis assessment teachers can receive the TESOL endorsement.

The required TESOL courses are:

EDTE 551 - Issues in TESOL Education

EDTE 552 - Linguistic Principles and Applications in TESOL

EDTE 553 - Instructional Methods in TESOL

EDTE 554 - Internship in TESOL--Need a small group of students and 50 hours of Field Experience which can be with their students.

Each course is 3.0 credit hours and is offered each 8 weeks (twice) in Fall and also Spring Terms, and once in the Summer. The students are considered coursework only students which means that they can not earn a C grade without repeating the course.

Each 3-credit course costs $1,098.00. The total TESOL endorsement program costs: $4,392.00 (Credit cost subject to change based on Heidelberg University.)

After completion of coursework and successful passage of the OEA English to Speakers of Other Language (ESOL) test (#1021). Candidates will apply for the TESOL endorsement through the ODE SAFE account application process.

For more details on the TESOL endorsement program CLICK HERE.

Contact:

Katie Zeyen

Graduate Admissions Coordinator

University of Heidelberg

t: 419.448.2602 | e: kzeyen@heidelberg.edu | w: www.heidelberg.edu

Looking to extend your network of resources for working with students identified as English Learners? Click HERE for a networking opportunity.